

Sharing the Harvest

Take a bite out of hunger

For $10 you get a 10 lb. bag of apples and empower women in agriculture and community development in West Pokot, Kenya.

Give "Seed Money," which helps plant new projects like Sharing the Harvest to multiply the impact.

100% of sales go to Jitokeze, a Covenant World Relief & Development supported project, to take a bite out of hunger by empowering women.

In West Pokot County, Kenya, Jitokeze, a ministry that empowers women in agriculture and community development, is continuing to make an impact on the lives of women and their families. They are helping women starting new businesses, share their resources, participate in peacemaking, and promote healthy food for their families and communities.

Your purchase of apples helps to take a bite out of hunger.

Sharing the Harvest

SHARING THE HARVEST is a mission venture of the churches of the Pacific Northwest Conference (ECC), facilitated by Wiley Heights Covenant Church in support of projects through Covenant World Relief and Development and Growing Hope Globally. We work to demonstrate God's love through sharing the harvest.
